My email clearly stated PBClick not GTX but it appears you're eager to get rid of both so let's do it.

*PLEASE CONFIRM INSTRUCTIONS BELOW BY RESPONSE TO THIS E-MAIL*

Dear Andy:

We are writing to confirm your instructions to transfer all patent files that we have recently received from Luce Hamilton and Perkins Coie related to PBClick and GTX. Upon confirmation, we will deliver such patent files at your expense to Mr. Michael Dimino at the following address by no later than Friday, January 23, 2009 (assuming your timely confirmation of transfer):

Michael J. Dimino
Novak, Druce & Quigg
1300 Eye Street NW
1000 West Tower
Washington, DC 20005
michael.dimino@novakdruce.com
office main: (202)659-0100
cell: (202)714-5007

Upon confirmation and delivery of the documents to Mr. Michael Dimino, we will no longer be responsible for these patent files. Please note that we have included in this transfer BOTH the PBClick and the GTX patent files. Also, please note that the transfer will occur (assuming your timely confirmation of transfer) before two approaching due dates, both of which you have been made aware. (See attached e-mails). Again, assuming your timely confirmation of transfer, we will not take any action in these matters, we will not be responsible for meeting these deadlines and we will not be responsible for notifying foreign counsel or the Patent Office of the transfer.

AGAIN, PLEASE CONFIRM YOUR INSTRUCTIONS BY RESPONSE TO THIS E-MAIL.

Regards,
